

METHODS AND SYSTEMS FOR PROCESSING FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A financial instrument is processed by generating an image of the financial instrument at a point of sale as part of a transaction. An electronic package that defines the imaged instrument is transmitted through a chain of entities as part of its processing, with each entity crediting the previous entity with funds in accordance with the terms of the instrument.

DE 7052086 v1